PETTY CASH REIMBURSEMENT

Petty cash is intended to assist departments in procurement for emergency needs. Examples include situations when a local vendor will not accept a Purchase Order or credit card, or the employee has not yet been issued a university credit card.

Departments on campus have the option of using various purchasing methods to procure goods and services. These methods include Purchasing Procurement Cards (PCard), Travel cards, and Limited Purchase Orders. Effective September 1, 2009, Petty Cash reimbursements are only allowed for purchases up to $100. Exceptions to this rule will be rare and will require approval by the Executive Director for Administrative Services or the Comptroller. University departments are encouraged to utilize alternative methods of payment including those mentioned above.

Using personal funds does not exempt the purchaser from all procurement procedures.

Items not allowed on Petty Cash Reimbursement:

1. Professional memberships.
2. Student stipends or scholarships.
3. Purchases greater than $100 unless approved by the Executive Director for Administrative Services or Comptroller.
4. Services or consulting by an individual. These require review of 20 factor test, etc. Any exceptions will require approval from Executive Director for Administrative Services or the Comptroller.
